SUPERVISOR SALADINO: Good morning, ladies and gentlemen. Thank you for joining us at today's Town of Oyster Bay Town Board Meeting for Tuesday, November 19, 2024.

For those of you joining us this morning, everyone has the opportunity to be heard on matters brought before the Town Board, as well as during the public comment period at the end of the meeting.

We have a special program we're going to start off our meeting honoring someone very special in our town. Then we're going to go into our Action Calendar. If you'd like to be heard on action calendar matters only, please fill out a form. If you'd like to be heard on something beyond that, please fill out a form for that as well. That will be heard in the public comment portion. We're going to go from our work on the Action Calendar, listen to folks. Then we'll vote on that Action Calendar, listen to folks who would like to be heard at

2 public comment. Then we have to break for
3 Executive Session, but we will give you
4 an opportunity to be heard first so you
5 don't have to wait around. We'll do all 6 that first before we break for our
7 meeting with our Counsel.

8 As always, this meeting is being 9 live streamed on the internet and social
10 media on the Town's website,
11 oysterbaytown.com. These proceedings are 12 recorded and later transcribed.

13 Statements and comments and input from 14 the public relative to our meetings is 15 always welcomed, and we always respect 16 whoever is speaking at the podium. To 17 submit comments online, you can email us
18 at publiccomment@oysterbay-ny.gov, that's 19 one word. Or mail us at the Office of 20 the Town Attorney, 54 Audrey Avenue,
21 Oyster Bay, New York, 11771.

22 Folks, we begin every meeting with 23 prayer. That's what's done in Albany.
24 That's what's done throughout the 25 country. That's what's done here in the

and we come together, clearly a larger family than ever before, getting bigger all the time.

We're proud to begin with prayer and leading us in prayer, our pastors, Carol and Robert Brown of True Life Christian Worship Center right here in Oyster Bay.
Great to see you, folks. Please step up to the podium. If everyone would kindly stand.

(Whereupon, all rise.)

PASTOR R. BROWN: Good morning,
Supervisor Saladino. Good to be here.
It's been a while. Board members, good morning.

Happy Thanksgiving to everyone here.
And just as a reminder of something, I've been telling the congregation that there must be something to be thankful for during this season. And I encourage you to think about something to be thankful for.

Before I pray, a very short

PASTOR C. BROWN: We are going to be reading Psalm 136, verses one through three. It says:

"Give thanks to the Lord, for he is good; his love endures forever.

Give thanks to the God of gods; his love endures forever.

Give thanks to the Lord of Lords; his love endures forever."

PASTOR R. BROWN: Let us pray. Heavenly father, thank you for this morning. Thank you, Lord, for this gathering. Lord God, that, Lord, we celebrate you today for the life that you've given us. Something to be thankful for, Lord.

Lord, let us remember it today. Let us think about it today. How good you've been to us. We remember your goodness each and every moment of today.

Lord, let this meeting go well. We pray for wisdom upon those that have issues and things to discuss during this

We thank you again in your son's name. Amen.

(Whereupon, all, "Amen".)

SUPERVISOR SALADINO: Thank you, Pastor Carol and Pastor Bob, we greatly appreciate you. We appreciate the True Life Christian Worship Center right here in Oyster Bay.

Do you have a website or an opportunity for people to get more information? Where should they go?

PASTOR R. BROWN: We do have a website you can look at Truelifecwc.org. That will give you service times. It will give you information of what we're doing at the church.

SUPERVISOR SALADINO: It's Truelifecwc.org. Thank you. And thank you for joining with us. It means a lot to us.

PASTOR R. BROWN: Thank you.

SUPERVISOR SALADINO: With November being a month we take special time out to honor our veterans, which who we should be honoring each and every day, and something we do here and take very seriously in the Town of Oyster Bay. We're thrilled to have them lead us in the Pledge of Allegiance.

Today, as always, we have distinguished veterans, in this case, the Vietnam Veterans of America Chapter 82, in Nassau County. With us, our good friends, Vietnam Veteran Army Specialist fourth Class Bob Selby, who served in Vietnam in 1968 and 69 with the first Infantry Division. We have United States Army Sergeant E-5 Richard Guevara, who served in the Vietnam from 1968 to 70 and currently serves as the vice president of the Vietnam Veterans of America Chapter 82. And someone we have honored here in this very room and this very town -- they all deserve tremendous honors, but he is a special friend -- United States Army

(Whereupon, the Pledge of Allegiance is said.)

SUPERVISOR SALADINO: Thank you to all of our veterans. Thank you to the three of you for your leadership, not only when you were serving, but as you have continued to do throughout your lives. We appreciate it greatly.

Now I ask you to join me in a moment of silence, remembering our men and women in the United States Armed Forces, all of our first responders, firefighters, emergency responders, EMTs, all of those in law enforcement. And also, as we remember those we have lost recently, including a very special engineer one of our favorite sons and one of our Our Town employees, John Caruso. I just learned that Supervisor Angie Carpenter of the SUPERVISOR SALADINO: We have a very special program this morning because my colleagues and I are blessed, as well as all of our town employees are blessed to honor a very special Oyster Bay resident, Marie Baade (applause). She's a very special person in the community. She has the love, respect and the admiration of everyone in our community. And I have been informed she's celebrating her 90th birthday with us today. The problem I'm having as I look across this family, I don't see anyone that looks anywhere near 90, so where is she? (Laughter.)

It's an appropriate time to reflect upon the rich life, the love of family and community, which are very big deals to all of us, especially to Marie. Marie moved to Oyster Bay at the young age of ten and has proudly called Oyster Bay, her home ever since. A devoted wife to her late husband, Warren, where she shared a beautiful partnership that was built on love and respect. Together, they raised three wonderful daughters who have been blessed with five grandchildren and six great grandchildren. Quite frankly, people like Marie and her husband helped build our town and our community.

Oyster Bay is filled with history, right? It's one of the most special places in America. Kids, did you know that Oyster Bay is home to the people that helped George Washington win the American Revolution? Did you know it's home to one of the most -- I didn't get a nod, yes, nothing. Oh, well (laughter).

So yes, Oyster Bay is home to the people who helped fight for our nation. Not that people in Oyster Bay are constantly fighting with one another. They're not. They work together to make this town the best it can be.

This is also home to someone who actually lived right here in Oyster Bay. A very famous person in history. Do you know that person's name? Billy Joel. Oh, yeah, there was another man (laughter).

President of the United States and former governor and police commissioner and state assemblyman named Theodore Roosevelt, who lived right up the road.

So when we look at this community, we see all these very important people. No one more important than Marie. You have done so much to make this a very tight knit community. You have done so much through love and caring to make Oyster Bay and keep it very, very special. And that's why we want to honor you for all you have done previously with your husband, Warren, who, by the way, shining down from heaven with tremendous pride and probably saying, well, where is my citation? You have an incredible family.

Just a little bit of your background. You're a graduate of Saint Dominic's. You poured your heart into raising your daughters and instilling them with the values of family, faith, and tradition. And they keep going, and they have made their husbands even better people because of your teaching. And I know you all agree with that (laughter).

3

5

Your commitment to your

6

Italian-American heritage is very evident and warm. And your hospitality, your love of cooking -- believe it or not, people say Italians show love through food. I think that's true, but so much more. You

9

10

11

bring your family and friends together, 12

while whether it's at the dinner table at 13

your home, out in here in Oyster Bay, it 14

really shows us what it means to be the 15

best of the best. It's the template to 16 success.

17

People are always talking about 18

making America better. Of course, we want 19 to continue to make America better. But 20

what you've done throughout your life and 21

continue to do makes America better. You are the template of success.

22

23

You've been involved in so many 24 different organizations, and you've given to them and do a great job there, including the Mothers Club, Catholic Daughters, the Italian American Club, the Life Enrichment Center, and we know you've been very involved with Saint Dominic's over the years.

25

Ladies and gentlemen, Marie's involvement reflects her passion for service, her desire to connect with others and show love. So we're celebrating this incredible 90th birthday milestone, and we want to honor Marie's life. A life filled with love and laughter, enduring commitment to family, to heritage, a love for Oyster Bay. Your legacy of kindness and strength continues to inspire all. If we all just follow Marie's example, this world, this community and our families will be a better place. And that's exactly what we're going to do.

So I'm going to ask my wonderful, bright, experienced colleague Michelle Johnson to help us by making this presentation to you, because Michele

So, Councilwoman Michele Johnson, if you would assist us by making this presentation. And board members, elected officials, let's all meet to Congratulate Marie on her 90th birthday and thank her for an amazing decades of accomplishment.

(Whereupon, applause.)

SUPERVISOR SALADINO: You look around and admire the Italian Americans and those who wish they were Italian Americans (laughter).

Marie, what have you got to say? Teach us your secrets to success.

SUPERVISOR SALADINO: I have just a few other announcements to make. Proud to announce that the Town of Oyster Bay has a new partnership in the Massapequa' "Big Hy for Heros", to collect DVD for those deployed in serving overseas in the United States Armed Forces, as well as movies for children in children's hospitals, has been a success and continues to be a success. We want to thank everyone who has helped in that collection of DVDs. Donations are accepted at Town Hall North and Town Hall South during the remainder of the month of November, and they'll be distributed around to troops around the globe and to children's hospitals. So if you're not using those DVDs, it's a great time to clear the house by donating them so we can pass them on, and our troops can enjoy movies and of course, children in children's hospitals. It's a great program. We're happy to take part in it, and we thank everyone who has donated their DVDs.

Our "Toys for Tots" collection drive is also ongoing, with collection boxes located at Town Old South, Town Hall North and the Town's Ice Skating Rink Center in Bethpage. A donation of a new, unwrapped toy is sure to bring a smile to a child this holiday season. And there's a big push to make sure these toys get, for the most part, to children right here on Long Island.

Our "Cruise-Thru" Holiday Toy Drive, by the way, is a record breaker, and I want to thank everybody involved in Special Events and Our Parks Department for putting this on. It's scheduled for Saturday, December 7th from 10 a.m. to 3 p.m. at John Byrnes Park in Massapequa, where you can have the opportunity to meet Santa Claus and get photos with the kids, drop off letters to Santa. There will be a North Pole mailbox, and that's where you drop your letter inside. We have quite a bit going on.

We'd like to thank our partners, the United States Marine Corps, also Optimum and Whitey's Tires, who have all been very helpful in making this possible. It keeps growing every year, and this event has broken records in terms of collection drives. So once again, that's due to the dedication of our town employees and the generosity of our residents. So thank you very much for all who have taken part in that.

Once again, I've done it a few times, but thank you to everyone involved in the Oyster Fest. Oyster Fest has been an enormous success, and will get better and better with each year. And it was a real record breaking event. And I thank everyone with the Chamber of Commerce, everyone involved, and all of the patience and support from the Oyster Bay community, it really was very, very special.
