We are very blessed to be led in prayer this morning by very good friends, effective religious leaders, and important members of our community. So we have with us our dear friends, Pastors Carol and Robert Brown from the True Life Christian Worship Center in Oyster Bay. Welcome back to Town Hall. Would you kindly step up to the podium to lead us in prayer.

And everyone, if you can, please rise.

PASTOR R. BROWN: A joy to be here this morning, Supervisor Saladino representatives, everyone in town. Just so great to have another opportunity to be with you. I consider you a friend also, so it was nice to hear. Thank you.

I'm going to have my wife read a scripture, and then I'll pray.

PASTOR C. BROWN: I'll be reading from Psalms 136 Chapter, Verses one through three.

Give thanks to the Lord, for he is good. His love endures forever.

Give thanks to the God of gods. His love endures forever.

Give thanks to the Lord of Lords. His love endures forever.

PASTOR R. BROWN: Let us pray this morning.

Father, we thank you. Thank you for the opportunity, Lord God, to be here today, Lord God, with these leaders, Lord of the Town of Oyster Bay.

Father, I pray, Lord Jesus, as we start this day off, Lord, in prayer to you, recognizing you, Lord God, for your goodness and your love and your mercy towards us each and every day. I pray that each conversation, each topic everything that is discussed today, Lord God, would be by the wisdom of your Holy Spirit. Lord, that would be a part of this meeting, Lord.

I just pray for, Lord, for things that are discussed that would be worked

We thank you, Lord, for each life that is represented here, and Lord, for your care that you give to each one every day.

We praise you and thank you in your son's name. Amen.

(Whereupon, all, "Amen".)

SUPERVISOR SALADINO: Thank you very much. You both mean a lot to us. But more importantly, you mean so much to your congregation and your community, which continues to flourish and be enlightened and be led by your humility, your guidance, your experience, and quite frankly, your love and understanding. We're so blessed to have both of you in our town, and you serve as the template for everyone to follow. You care about one another, love one another, and make a SUPERVISOR SALADINO: Leading us in the Pledge of Allegiance at today, our distinguished veterans, also very good friends from the Vietnam Veterans of America, Chapter 82, in Nassau County. We take special pride in all of our veterans across this town, but the two of you are exceptionally special, heads above for all you do, not only during wartime, but all you continue to do.

You served for a few years each overseas, and yet you spent decades continuing to serve our nation, to set a fine example of pride and a continuity in terms of the message that all Americans should hold. And quite frankly, your service to veterans is second to none.

We're so proud to be joined by our dear friends, including Army Specialist Fourth Class Bob Selby of Oyster Bay, who served in Vietnam from 1968 to 69 with the First Infantry Division. He serves as the vice president of the Nassau County Vietnam Veterans of America, Chapter 82.

And we're joined by another dear friend, and that's United States Army Staff Sergeant Arturo Edwards of Farmingdale. Arturo Edwards served in Vietnam from May of 1966 through November of 1967. Arturo has so many accolades that accompany his name and his service. And one that we continue to remind the public about, which is important every month of the year, but especially in February, which is Black History Month. And you are certainly part of the town's history. Arturo Edwards is the past recipient of the town's most prestigious award, the Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr. Distinguished Service Award. And, sir, your service has been distinguished -- quite frankly, both of you.

So if you give us the honor of your presence to lead us in the Pledge of Allegiance.

SUPERVISOR SALADINO: There's so much to celebrate in our nation, and I'm reminded of this every time I turn on the television for numerous reasons. And one of them is the fact that I happen to be a sports lover, like some of my colleagues. And I love watching the Olympics. Not only is it a testament to those who work so diligently to bring out the best in themselves and inspire us, but it speaks to pride in our nation.

Every time I turn on that channel -- listen, you got a lot of channels out there, and there are mixed feelings emanating depending on whose news you're watching, what you're watching at the time and in the complicated world, in the country that we live in. But nothing, nothing brings more pride these days than watching the Olympics, realizing the young people, our future generation, have the abilities to be the best of the best and to continue to elevate our nation in so many ways. And that's the message of bringing people together, respecting one another, and assisting and being supportive of those who help to raise the bar for their communities.

Today we celebrate Black History Month and recognize the achievements of African Americans and the positive impact they've had here in the Town of Oyster Bay. Unity is our strength in this nation, focusing on how to bring our nation further and to make people proud of our country, and to highlight the best paths to overcome the obstacles that we see each and every day, and in our town, we have so many people who accomplish this.

On February 25th, from 6 to 8 p.m., we will continue to commemorate Black History Month and highlight the achievements of African American innovators, leaders and people making an enormous difference in our country. And we're going to hold that right here in Town Hall North in Oyster Bay. And we are looking forward to seeing so many of our good friends here that day.

Today, with the back drop of Black History Month, we reflect upon the many contributions of exceptional individuals people like Pastors Carol and Robert Brown, who selflessly worked to make our town a better place. Yes, they focus on their congregation; Yes, they assist people in need, but they also send a very strong message to all of us on unity, appreciation and how we can be better as human beings and Americans. And really, that's the formula for success. That's the formula to solve the issues that we learn about across our nation and across the world.

A few months ago, Pastors Carol and Robert Brown attended our 9/11 ceremony where Pastor Bob recited a very meaningful prayer in between the readings of the Walls of Honor and the readings of the names on the September 11th Memorial wall that is down in at TOBAY Beach. We appreciate you sharing time with us and that moment of reflection and prayer throughout that evening.

But we appreciate you for so many reasons. Throughout their tenure at the True Life Christian Worship Center in Oyster Bay, Pastors Carol and Bob have distinguished themselves. They are very compassionate. They work hard. They're amazing spiritual leaders, and they continue through religion, through spiritual enlightenment, and through recognizing the good in all of us and the potential in all of us, and helping to lift that potential in each and every person in our town. But you also send a great template for the rest of our country. We're so, so proud of you.

Their love of the Lord and experience has been essential and is an essential part of their ministry. They emphasize and emotionally guide their parishioners through faith, kindness, kindness, love, dedication and this wonderful talent that they both possess. They help connect all of us. It's really, really important.

I don't know if we're at that crossroads where it's the most important time. I believe there have been many important times in our nation's history to have people like you to inspire, to use love, to break down barriers, not the weapons of war and violence, but to use love, understanding, compassion, and all of the incredible traits that you hold. You are exceptional role models here in our town.

So we ask you to please come forward as we have a citation of recognition for the two of you to share and to use as an example of the fact that we reward those who we are blessed to have among our ranks in this town. I'll ask you to come up to the rail here, and I'm going to ask Councilwoman Laura Maier, would you kindly assist us in making this presentation?

SUPERVISOR SALADINO: To call you an inspiration is an understatement. You are both tremendously appreciated. You inspire. You really do an amazing job, and it's so important to recognize you because it sends the right message to everyone, not just in the Town of Oyster Bay, but throughout our country. It sends the message that in the Town of Oyster Bay, we respect everyone of every background, every walk of life, every religion, no matter where you come from, if you're willing to be part of the solution, we welcome you in this town. And through your actions and your fine example, you have taught that lesson over and over and over. Please know that all of us in Town of Oyster Bay government appreciate that and support you in your mission to make a difference.

With that, can I ask you to inspire us all right now?

PASTOR R. BROWN: Well, thank you so much. I thank everyone for this honor, this recognition this morning. It is a joy to be here.

A little over three years ago, we came in, not sure what was going to happen. What are we doing in Oyster Bay? But such a warm reception.

All of you, the door is always open for one visit to to join us on a Sunday morning at 10:30. We'd love to see you and just share the love of Jesus with you during that time. Thank you again. Thank you. A real joy to be here.

PASTOR C. BROWN: And we are just so grateful for your warm hospitality. Welcoming us into O Bay. We partnered in many outreaches where you have come and attended as well. And we are just so looking forward to the team that we will continue to be in the years to come to bless this town.

SUPERVISOR SALADINO: Thank you. And we continue to appreciate you. We look forward to having you at our Black History Month celebration here in Town Hall North.

And history is so important to the Town of Oyster Bay. And there's been so many examples of this. And I look out in the audience and see members of the media here. We appreciate you here, and we ask you to continue to tell the stories of history, including African American history, because Oyster Bay was that safe place, an entire town of African Americans from Virginia who were not being treated properly, picked up and moved. Think about the difficulty of that. If you're going to make such an enormous sacrifice to pick up your whole family, your whole community, and move, it better be to some place where you're accepted. And they chose Oyster Bay. And we're so proud of that fact and we continue in that legacy. All of the elected officials, all of us continuing in that mission. So to work with you is SUPERVISOR SALADINO: And ten other. I'm so proud of the of our staff and our schools and our school children for participating in this program. What school age?

MS. ALTER: Elementary through middle school.

SUPERVISOR SALADINO: We reached out to elementary and middle schools across our town, and the students came through big, and they produced these Valentine cards for our veterans. And our vets are taking them right now, and they'll distribute them to veterans not only in

We're proud of our nation. We're appreciative of our veterans, and we're so thrilled of our school aged children who are participating in this for very important reasons. So thank you very, very much.

And I'm going to ask somebody to please include these (indicating). Thank you, Jeff.

So again, thank you to our pastors, Carol and Bob Brown. And congratulations to them.

So at this point, we're going to move forward with our business of the day.

family. Councilman Labriola has had many titles in his life. He's been a member of the New York State Assembly, where he served with distinction. His title has been Town Clerk here in our town. It is now Councilman of the Town of Oyster Bay. But recently he just got the best title in life, and that is the title of grandpa. Congratulations to you and to Cindy. So, Giani --

COUNCILMAN LABRIOLA: Giani.

SUPERVISOR SALADINO: Tell us a little bit about the baby and your daughter and son-in-law; how are they doing?

COUNCILMAN LABRIOLA: Well, the baby is the most beautiful baby in the world. His name is Giani, a little different, Giani Armand. Baby and mom are doing great. And my wife can't get enough of him, she's there every day, so we're just very blessed. Thank you, all, for acknowledging that (applause).

SUPERVISOR SALADINO: Thank you.

TOWN CLERK: Motion to adopt with seven ayes and zero nays.

The Calendar is complete,
Supervisor.

SUPERVISOR SALADINO: Thank you so much, Clerk LaMarca. That was a quite painless.

I do want to thank everyone involved who prepares this Calendar from our Town
Attorney's Office, the Clerk's Office.
There are quite a few people who make this happen. Obviously, resolutions all get approved in the Town Attorney's Office and then separately and fully independently by our Inspector General.

And I do point out that some of today's resolutions are paid for through the many grant programs that our Department of Intergovernmental Affairs applies for. So there is no charge to the property tax payers in the Town of Oyster Bay, because those are paid for by all of our grant writers and those grants that we receive from the state or the federal government and outside organizations; very, very proud of all of that.

As I'm proud of the people in the Receiver's Office who do a fantastic job. I witnessed -- when I went to go pay my taxes standing on the line, I witnessed people very happy. When people are happy, when they have to pay their taxes at the Tax Office, you know you're doing a lot right, that's for sure.

So with that, I believe you have an announcement, Jeff.

RECEIVER OF TAXES: Absolutely.

Supervisor, our last two Tax grievance seminars are going to take place tomorrow right here, February 11th at 7 p.m., and that will be live streamed for the first time ever. And Thursday, February 12th at 10 a.m., right here at 54 Audrey Avenue. Again, first time, second time we'll be live stream.

Come learn how to reduce your assessment, in which you'll in turn

2 reduce your taxes. It's a great session.
3 We'll be joined by our great Nassau
4 County comptroller, Elaine Phillips, with 5 some insight. And the Supervisor always 6 comes by, and he will give us some great 7 insight on the town and what's going on 8 there, too. So we kind of make it an all
9 in one. We talk about grievances, we talk
10 about exemptions all the good stuff about 11 how to lower your taxes.

12 SUPERVISOR SALADINO: Thank you,
13 Receiver Pravato. We're known for our 14 transparency in this town. So once again, 15 would you tell us what day, what time and 16 where to go online? Because you don't
17 have to physically show up. You could do 18 it right from the convenience of your 19 home or any location where you have your 20 computer and internet access.

21 RECEIVER OF TAXES: So Oyster Bay
22 town grievances, where you can watch it
23 live tomorrow, 7 p.m. right here, 54
24 Audrey Avenue; Thursday, February 12th,
25 10 a.m. right here at 54 Audrey Avenue.

SUPERVISOR SALADINO: I also want to announce on Friday we have a wonderful ceremony where we recognize and embrace love in our town. And that's our vow renewal ceremony. Rich LaMarca, our town clerk who has performed so many marriages, would you just give us, again, a little insight on when, where and what we'll be doing?

TOWN CLERK: Yes, Supervisor.

We'll be holding that ceremony right here at the Town Board Room at 54 Audrey Avenue. We usually have about 60+ couples that do show up each time that we do this vow renewal ceremony. It's a very special time. I know the residents truly enjoy the event. We have lots of folks that do come back every year. So a lot of repeat couples. It's just a special time that we like to share smiles with each other and the Supervisor makes it fun, let's put it that way.

So, folks, come on down. If you haven't signed up already, please feel free to join us on Friday. This Friday from 11:00 till about 12:30-1:00. It's a great time and a great way to kick off Valentine's Day weekend.

SUPERVISOR SALADINO: And is there any charge for that?

TOWN CLERK: It's absolutely free.

SUPERVISOR SALADINO: Absolutely free. Well, the love is in the air in the Town of Oyster Bay. And I hope more people will join us and come down there. And I do have to compliment all the couples, because in the Town of Oyster Bay, these are very intellectually brilliant people. Why? Because they know the three most powerful words in the language are I love you and for the men, the two most powerful words are. Yes, dear.

TOWN CLERK: Like I said, the Supervisor likes to make it a fun time.

SUPERVISOR SALADINO: So we look forward to that too.

All of our programs are located on

1
2 Oysterbaytown.com, where our transparency
3 abounds with all the many things to do. I
4 went the other day to a program in the 5 library. It was in the Plainview-Old
6 Bethpage Library on Old Country Road
7 where we had another free band playing.
8 They were phenomenal. It was almost a 9 packed house. So people love our outdoor 10 concerts, Music Under the Stars, all 11 summer long. But don't forget, we have 12 indoor concerts and they're also free.
13 And we thank the partnership of of all
14 the libraries that are so kind and so 15 helpful, working with us to provide these 16 very talented musicians. And that will 17 take us through at least till May. So all
18 of this is on our website,
19 Oysterbaytown.com. We thank you all for 20 participating.

21 And I want to give a special thanks
22 to all the elected officials that I'm so
23 lucky to work with the Council Members,
24 the Town Clerk, the Receiver during 25 weather emergencies -- and we certainly

1
2 had and continue to have some tough
3 weather because of bone chilling
4 temperatures -- we have received phone
5 calls, you always do. And our snow
6 removal team did a phenomenal job under 7 tough conditions. It was a lot of snow.
8 It was a lot of ice. And then our job is 9 to field the phone calls from the 10 residents and make sure we continue down
11 this road of providing five star service
12 to our residents. And all of you have 13 been fielding those calls, relating the 14 information back to the Highway
15 Department and to the town employees
16 responsible for clearing the roads and 17 dealing with the issues. We've got 18 warming centers at places like our 19 Bethpage Ice Rink, and we're here to 20 help.

21 So thank you to my colleagues on the 22 town board. Thank you, Clerk LaMarca and 23 Receiver Pravato, for all you continue to 24 do to assist our residents. And in this 25 town, we work for the residents and prove

So with that, may I please have a motion?

COUNCILMAN HAND: Second.

SUPERVISOR SALADINO: All in favor, please signify by saying, "Aye".

(Whereupon, all members respond in favor.)

SUPERVISOR SALADINO: Those opposed, "Nay".

(Whereupon, no verbal response.)

SUPERVISOR SALADINO: The ayes have it.
