SUPERVISOR SALADINO: Good morning, ladies and gentlemen. If you would take your seats. Happy New Year, and welcome to this meeting of the Oyster Bay Town Board Meeting for January 12, 2026. It is the first town board meeting of the New Year.

For those of you joining us this morning, you will have an opportunity to be heard on matters brought before this town board, as well as during the public comment period at the end of the meeting. If you would like to be heard on either, please fill out a slip, they're right down in front, so that we'll know you'd like to be heard and we will call on you.

As always, this meeting is being live streamed on the Town's website, which is OysterBayTown.com. These proceedings are recorded and later transcribed. And your voice is very important to us, statements and comments and input from the public relative to our meetings are always welcome, and we always respect who's ever at the podium speaking at any time. So if you would like to be heard as part of on an item on the Calendar, please reflect that and put that item on the slip. If you don't have an item on the Calendar you'd like to be heard on, then just write public comment. Then at the very end of the meeting, we'll call you up. If you'd like to submit comments online, you can e-mail us at publiccomment@oysterBay-NY.gov, or e-mail us at the Office of the Town Attorney 54 Audrey Avenue, Oyster Bay, New York 11771.

Leading us in prayer this morning is our good friend, Pastor Sam who oversees English ministries at the Arumdan Presbyterian Church in Bethpage. Welcome to town hall. Will everybody please rise.

PASTOR SAM: Let us pray together.

God, we pray for our unity to fill our town and to fill our nation. A unity that is not from a unity of thought for we all believe and practice different faiths. We all have different political beliefs. But, God, would you create a unity amongst diversity on the basis of love and common sense, and the willingness to support one another with kindness.

God, would you help us to reach across the aisle, to reach across the street and help one another with neighborliness and consideration.

God, we pray that you would allow compassion to fill the hearts of first responders so that when they go and see people engaging in risky behavior, when our town volunteer firefighters see actions that are risky, like heating a home with stovetop or oven, kind of heat, or people using fireplaces incorrectly, even as they see the risk to help them to see the need, and even as they teach, even as they exhort, would you help them to recognize that people are making choices that are difficult, to help them to be kind.

I pray also for the police officers and every stop that they make. Would you help them to keep our neighborhood safe, but to look upon each driver with consideration and compassion, knowing that each driver making their choices is acting out of just too much stress often. And I pray that in every interaction, their professionalism would bring out the best behavior out of each of us as we recognize that we are being guided not just by sternness, but by compassion and understanding.

God, we ask that in the decisions that are made in places of power, would there be an understanding of what people are going through in their lives? And would you allow people to be acting out of their humanity, and not just for the sake of numbers, so that in every decision, people will be able to see your beauty and your will.

God, as we get to the business of the day, would you help us to be marveling that you have allowed us such prosperity and security that these can be our concerns rather than your survival. And in all the business, would you help us to see your faithfulness and to respond with gratitude. All these things we pray in Christ's name.

(Whereupon, all, "Amen".)

SUPERVISOR SALADINO: Thank you so much, Pastor Sam. Thank you for all you do for your ministry, your congregation, and for the overall Bethpage community. We appreciate you joining us. Happy New Year to you and to your entire community.

PASTOR SAM: Thank you, sir.

SUPERVISOR SALADINO: Leading us in the Pledge of Allegiance this morning is the United States Air Force veteran, Kevin Hertel, who served our nation from 1999 to 2003. And we're also joined by United States Marine Corps Major Fred Nielsen.

Kevin is the founder and president of the nonprofit Suicide Awareness and Remembrance Flag Corporation, and Fred Nielsen serves as the Vice President.

We're always very proud to have the SAR flag always on display in this room. And your organization memorializes the thousands of veterans who have died by suicide after returning home from war. But more importantly, your efforts, we're very proud to work with you are about public education, letting people under stress know that there is help for them. And we appreciate all of that. You are warriors protecting America, but warriors protecting those with mental illness and behavioral health issues, especially working to end that stigma and giving them a path to reach out for help.

Gentlemen, the podium is yours.

(Whereupon, the Pledge of Allegiance was said.)

SUPERVISOR SALADINO: Thank you very much.

Folks, this morning, please join with us all for a moment of silence for our men and women in the United States Armed Forces serving here and throughout the world, and the recognition of all of those in law enforcement and for all of our first responders, and then, obviously, for all we have lost under all sorts of circumstances throughout this past year and recently.

(Whereupon, a moment of silence.)

SUPER SALADINO: Please be seated.

SUPERVISOR SALADINO: Thank you for joining us in remembering all of those people we have lost, people in very difficult situations. We continue to pray for the Neutra family. We spent a lot of time with them in 2025, naming one of our parks after their son who perished as a member of the IDF. And we will continue to support, to protect and to recognize people in this town because we are a town based on love and not hate.

SUPERVISOR SALADINO: Folks, this morning we're proud to join with our nation to celebrate Korean American Day by honoring someone who has done much to provide spiritual leadership in our community, but also helps connect our town with the proud and rich culture of Korean Americans.

Pastor Sam, we are proud to honor you here this morning for your efforts on behalf of your congregants at Arumdan Presbyterian Church, local Korean Americans, and in our town. Korean American Day is celebrated annually on January 13th, commemorating the arrival of the first Korean immigrants to the U.S. in 1903. The date is officially recognized by the United States Congress to honor the community's rich history, cultural impacts, which includes musical groups like K-Pop, incredible food, and the arts, and that list goes on and on. It also provides the opportunity to reflect on the significant contributions to American society to business, military science, inventions, all technology, and public service by celebrating this heritage each and every year.

The celebration begins with honoring people like Pastor Sam, who personify Korean American values and culture. Throughout his tenure at Arumdan Presbyterian Church, Pastor Sam has distinguished himself for his caring, hard work, and spiritual leadership. His love of the Lord, compassion and experience has been an essential part of his ministry and as he understands, emphasizes, and spiritually guides many of his parishioners as they face demands and challenges in their lives.

Arumdan is a Korean adjective which means beloved, good, and beautiful. So in our family we have a small connection with Korea. My father fought the Korean War. Very proud of it. Spoke about how cold it was in the winters there. Brutally cold. But he also spoke about the good Korean people brought artifacts back home and taught us about what they meant and the Korean people in terms of love, putting education and spirituality and family first. About the dedication to success among the Korean people, about food and celebration and music and dance and costume and all those cultural aspects that are deep and rich and shared with the American people here at home, but obviously with the Korean people and they've taken that culture throughout the world.

So we're very proud to have you here with us. And quite frankly, the teachings of Pastor Sam demonstrates how we grow more beloved through worship and fellowship and how we grow better. We become good through spiritual training and Bible studies, and to grow more beautiful through taking the good news where it needs to be heard.

In today's uncertain world, Pastor Sam, your message serves as a beacon of faith, unity, and hope. Pastor Sam, thank you for all you do for the community. Would you please come forward to the podium rail, we would like to present you with this town citation, and to ensure that you are thanked by the entire Town of Oyster Bay. Let's give them a big, big hand (applause).

Councilwoman, would you like to help them with the presentation?

SUPERVISOR SALADINO: Pastor Sam, would you like to say a few words?

PASTOR SAM: I remember back in 1903 all the people who came to America to work on the plantation. They all happened to be Christian because they were all recommended by other missionaries that were serving in Korea. Those American missionaries started medical schools and other colleges and education centers. And when America opened up its borders more in 1965, a lot of people started coming to America. Educated through those American endeavors then in Korea. And so there's a big debt of gratitude that Koreans feel towards America for even less in many ways. And it is a privilege to be able to serve and to be able to build community alongside you here. So thank you for the opportunity.

SUPERVISOR SALADINO: Very welcome. It's a privilege for us. Thank you to you and to your congregation. Thanks for all you do in Bethpage and throughout the communities and obviously for your following. You are a great shepherd of your pocket and great friends with us. Again, let's hear from Pastor Sam.

SUPERVISOR SALADINO: Thank you to everyone who attended our inauguration last Thursday. We thank you for your participation, your patience. And the one person who wanted to be there and wasn't there is our town clerk, Richard LaMarca. Congratulations on your inauguration. Sorry your surgery kept you from being there, but we did miss you.

TOWN CLERK LAMARCA: Thank you so much. And I sort of watched the entire inauguration as streamed live. And I thought everybody did a fantastic job, so congrats.

SUPERVISOR SALADINO: You hung in there for the entire thing? Wow. Congratulations, Rich, as you begin your new term.

I don't have any speaking slips, Supervisor.

SUPERVISOR SALADINO: Has there been postings or mailings on this?

TOWN CLERK: There has.

SUPERVISOR SALADINO: Okay.

And would anyone like to be heard on a Regular Action Calendar for today?

(Whereupon, no response.)

SUPERVISOR SALADINO: Let the record reflect that no one has indicated they'd like to be heard.

We have so many interesting resolution items today that represent all that we do in government, whether it's property cleanups or preparing for major projects, small projects, IDA training, all that we do with our musical and cultural entertainment shows for our residents, and making appointments and so forth. So we're very, very proud to continue to be doing the business of the people as we begin another year in leadership of running this town. I want to thank all of my colleagues on the town board, all the elected officials, all of the employees for your help each and every day. This is certainly one of the best municipalities in New York State and has been proven by many, many criteria. And we thank you for thank you from the bottom of my heart for all your professionalism and dedication.

So with that, let's take a vote.

TOWN CLERK: Supervisor Saladino?

SUPERVISOR SALADINO: Thank you. So with that, let's close the meeting.

Frank, do you have anything for us?

VILLAGE ATTORNEY: Yes. Before you close the meeting, I just wanted to put on the record that --

SUPERVISOR SALADINO: First of all,
give us your presence.

VILLAGE ATTORNEY: Oh, I'm sorry, Frank Scalera, Town Attorney.

Before we close the meeting, I just wanted to have it for the record that we have the Oath of Office cards. Deputy Town Attorney, Elizabeth Vaughnan, are going to give them after this meeting is over to the electeds on the board that were successful in the November 2025

election, that being yourself, Joe Saladino; Lou Imbroto; Andrew Monteleone; and Thomas Hand, and of course, Rich LaMarca. So I just want to put on the record that please, at the end of the meeting, please stay in place and we'll get your oath of office signed. Thank you.

SUPERVISOR SALADINO: Okay. With no other business outside of Speaker Chandler Sacks after the meeting, may I have a motion, please?

COUNCILMAN IMBROTO: I move that this town board meeting closed.

COUNCILMAN HAND: Second.

SUPERVISOR SALADINO: All in favor, please signify by saying Aye.

(Whereupon, all members respond in favor.)

SUPERVISOR SALADINO: Those opposed, nay.

(Whereupon, no response.)

SUPERVISOR SALADINO: The Aye's have it.
